FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GOODMAN RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Crystal Goodman, daughter of Matt and Debbie Goodman of Louisville, is the recipient of the Jerome Rooke Accountancy Scholarship and the Eunice W. Dougherty Scholarship Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The Rooke scholarship is presented annually to the most outstanding major in the junior year. The student must have earned a minimum grade point average of 3.0-4.0 overall and 3.5-4.0 in ACC 2150 and ACC 3030.

The Dougherty scholarship is a $500 award available to juniors majoring in one of several departments of study. A cumulative grade point average of 3.80 or higher based on all undergraduate course work is needed to be eligible, with at least 15 semester hours at Eastern.

A 1991 graduate of North Clay Community High School in Louisville, Goodman is an accounting major.

Eastern is a residential university with an enrollment of 10,700 on-campus students. The university has as its highest priority teaching in its classrooms and laboratories complemented by strong academic support services.
